

18TH OSH Awards FY 2023

Information Note

Overview

For 17 consecutive years, we have been proudly recognizing organizations dedicated to creating safe work environments. In our ongoing efforts to enhance the quality, transparency, and fairness of the Annual OSH Awards, we have made significant updates to the Contest Form. These changes, in the light of the feedback from past participants and our own experience, are aimed to cater the specific needs of different sectors.

Notably, we have introduced key improvements and modifications in the Contest Forms for the following categories:

5 Reasons Why you Should Participate

Proven Credibility

- With a 17-year legacy, the Awards have consistently maintained their trust and prestige.

Organized by a recognized Employers Body

- Organized by the Employers' Federation of Pakistan, the only employer body recognized both nationally and internationally, ensuring credibility and relevance.

Aligned with Standards

- The Award criteria are regularly updated to reflect the latest national and international safety standards and compliance with national regulations.

In-Person Evaluation

- Every submission is verified through a 100% on-site evaluation, ensuring fairness and transparency.

Opportunities for Improvement

- The evaluation committee provides participants with personalized feedback, helping them enhance their workplace safety practices.
